

Website of STS Deptt. launched

Port Blair, May 28

In its efforts for putting in place a citizen friendly delivery of services, the Directorate of Transport has been taking up various e-initiatives. As part of this endeavor, an exclusive website for STS Department has been launched by Shri J. B. Singh, Secretary cum Director (Transport), A&N Administration in presence of Shri K Narayanan, SIO, NIC, Port Blair and other officials today. The general public can access the website at its url <http://transport.and.nic.in>. The website has all the information about the department and one can download all the forms required for Motor Vehicle Department from this website. Also, the general public can obtain the details like timing and fare of various bus routes operated by this department, a communication from the Dy. Director (Admn./Vig.) said here today.